

Opportunity to Take Part in Apraxia of Speech Research at Siskin Hospital!

ATTENTION: Adults with communication impairments following stroke

WHO

Participants must be at least 6 months following stroke, with some degree of speech difficulty (articulation or production of words) resulting from the stroke.

WHAT

Participation in an investigation to compare two different treatments for apraxia of speech.

WHERE

Siskin Hospital for Physical Rehabilitation
1 Siskin Dr.
Chattanooga, TN 37403

BENEFIT/RISKS/COSTS

There are no significant risks for being in this study. There is no cost for participation in this study. The treatment will be provided at no charge to you. We cannot guarantee any benefits to you for participation.

Charlotte Purcell,

a Siskin Hospital

Speech-Language pathologist, is now recruiting individuals with communication difficulty following a stroke to participate in a study to learn more about treatment for apraxia of speech as part of her capstone project in the Doctor of Speech-Language Pathology program at Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions.

PLEASE CONTACT:

Charlotte Purcell

423-634-1656

Charlotte.purcell@rm.edu to find out more!

Please take note of this contact information or take a picture of the flyer with your phone.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN
UNIVERSITY
HEALTH PROFESSIONS
Institutional Review Board

Approval expires March 9, 2022

A Comparison of Sound Production Treatment & Metrical Pacing Technique for Individuals with Apraxia of Speech Protocol 2102015-02